

Lab Exercise 1-4 Defining Business Rules and AssumptionsAlden A. Quiñones

BUSINESS PROCESS IN PAYMENT OF GRANTS OF SOCIAL PENSION'S BENEFICIARIES.A. BUSINESS RULES:

1. The system administrator able to assign appropriate access roles to the registered end-users once the user already created their accounts
2. The end-users will be able to access the system once they made the registration in the system.
3. All beneficiaries should be aware that they can access information from the system over the internet
4. The system should be able to filter-out all entries in the encoding module because the strict validation of the forms.
5. The end-user should be able to generate reports.

B. ASSUMPTIONS

1. It is assumed that the system administrator already have profiling of all employee along with their responsibilities and the end-users to
2. It is assumed that the end-users already capacities on how to access the system.
3. It is assumed that not all-beneficiaries know how to access the system especially physically impaired beneficiaries
4. It is assumed that all incomplete information will be filtered out by the system buy there might be possibilities that the fraudulent data pass the form validation.